

Hosted by:

A Conversation About Martin Luther King Jr. and Service

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birth provides an opportunity to engage in meaningful discussion about public service and civic engagement.

Join us to read together an excerpt from Dr. King's speech The Drum Major Instinct and talk about his legacy of service and its place in our lives and our democracy.

Facilitated by Focusing Our Resources for Community Enlightenment

Date: Tuesday, February 7, 2012
6:30 pm

Location: Brady Faith Center
404 South Ave.
Syracuse, NY 13204

Contact: Lanika Mabrey (315) 395-1562 or
Brenda Muhammad (315) 278-4572